

Mazor Robotics Wins Gold STEVIE® Award in 2014 International Business AwardsSM

ORLANDO, Fla. – August 28, 2014 – Mazor Robotics has been named the winner of a Gold Stevie® Award in the Company/Organization Awards category in the 11th Annual International Business Awards.

The International Business Awards are the world's premier business awards program. All individuals and organizations worldwide – public and private, for-profit and non-profit, large and small – are eligible to submit nominations. The 2014 IBAs received entries from more than 60 nations and territories.

Nicknamed the Stevies for the Greek word for “crowned,” the awards will be presented to winners at a gala awards banquet at the Westin Paris – Vendôme Hotel in Paris, France on October 10th.

More than 3,500 nominations from organizations of all sizes and in virtually every industry were submitted this year for consideration in a wide range of categories, including Company of the Year, Website of the Year, Best New Product or Service of the Year, Corporate Social Responsibility Program of the Year, and Executive of the Year, among others. Mazor Robotics won in the Most Innovative Company of the Year category for Middle East and Africa.

“Israel is known for its contribution to innovation and technology, so this is an especially valued award for Mazor Robotics,” said CEO Ori Hadomi. “We are proud to be recognized by the International Business Awards.”

Stevie Award winners were selected by more than 250 executives worldwide who participated in the judging process from May through early August.

“We congratulate all of the Stevie winners in this year's IBAs,” said Michael Gallagher, president and founder of the Stevie Awards. “The quality of entries we receive improves every year. This year's judges were rewarded with the opportunity to review more than 3,500 stories of business achievement and innovation from around the world. We look forward to celebrating the winners' achievements in Paris on 10 October.”
